City of Oakland

With a rich history and welcoming spirit, Oakland is one of St. Louis County's hidden gems. Incorporated in 1920, the city blends historic character with mid-century designs.

Within its boundaries are Ursuline Academy and the Oak Bend Branch of the St. Louis County Library, while families are served by the Kirkwood School District. Oakland also connects directly to Grant's Trail, with Backstoppers Park as a popular trailhead entrance.

Three city parks — Loewnau, Minturn, and Backstoppers — provide green space, walking paths, and places to connect with neighbors, reflecting the community's strong sense of pride.
